

TOWN OF WEST NEW YORK
MAYOR FELIX E. ROQUE, MD

MEDIA ADVISORY

MAYOR FELIX ROQUE AND THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS WILL HOST A TURKEY DISTRIBUTION FOR WEST NEW YORK RESIDENTS

WHAT: 2nd Annual Turkey Distribution

Mayor Felix E. Roque, MD and the Board of Commissioners of West New York will be distributing turkeys to the constituents of West New York starting at 4:00PM, tomorrow, Thursday, November 15, 2012 at the West New York Middle School.

During this holiday season it is about the less fortunate and this is why we rallied together to make a difference. "This is what we do for the community and the kids and it really puts a smile on their face," said Mayor Felix E. Roque.

This year's Thanksgiving Celebration has a special meaning; thousands of families have been devastated by Hurricane Sandy. This Thanksgiving event will bring community members together to support those in need and restore their hope.

Although we have several volunteers that will be helping us distribute them at the Middle School, we could always use more. We plan to deliver them to each senior building, churches and to anyone else who cannot make it to pick them up, we would greatly appreciate your presence and assistance.

If you have any further questions please feel free to contact me at my office (201) 295-5100. We look forward to your help in delivering some joy and comfort to our residents.

WHO: Mayor Felix E. Roque, MD and the Board of Commissioners of West New will host Turkey Distribution.

WHEN: Thursday, November 15, 2012
4:00 PM

WHERE: Middle School
201-57th Street
West New York, NJ

###