Attention: Town Clerk

NOTE CAREFULLY: Your claim will not be considered filed as required by the New Jersey Tort Claims Act until this completed form has been filed with The Town of West New York. Failure to provide the information requested, including such responses as "To Be Provided" or "Under Investigation" or similar non-responsive answers, will result in the claim being treated as not being filed in accordance with the Notice requirements of the New Jersey Tort Claims Act.

Notice of Claim normally must be filed within 90 days after the incident giving rise to the claim. Upon a proper application, the New Jersey Superior Court may, for good cause, allow a claim to be filed not later than one year after the date of the incident giving rise to the claim.

This form is designed as a general form for use with respect to all claims. Some of the questions may not be applicable to your particular claim. For example, if your claim does not arise out of an automobile accident, questions regarding road conditions might not be applicable. In that event, you should so specify in the space where an answer is to be provided to that question.

- A. When, after a reasonable and thorough investigation using due diligence, you are unable to answer any question, or any part thereof, because of lack of information available to you, specify in full and complete detail the reason the information is not available to you and what has been done to locate the information. In addition, specify what knowledge or belief you have concerning the unanswered portion of the question and set forth the facts upon which the knowledge or belief is based.
- B. When a question asks that you identify writings, it shall be deemed a sufficient answer, where appropriate and possible, to furnish true and legible copies thereof, together with you answers to these questions.
- C. Where a question does not specifically request a particular fact, but where the facts are necessary in order to make the answer to the question either comprehensible, complete or not misleading, you are requested to include the fact or facts as part of the answer and the question shall be deemed specifically to request the fact or facts.
- D. If you claim any form or privilege, whether based on statute or otherwise, as a ground for not answering a question or any part thereof, set forth in complete detail each and every fact upon which the privilege is based, including sufficient facts for the court to make a full determination whether the claim of privilege is valid.
- E. Where a question asks for a date or an amount or any other specific information, it will not be adequate to state that the precise date, amount or other specific information is unknown to you, where you are capable of approximating the information requested.
- F. Where a question requests that you "identify all writings," you should state with specificity the date, author, description, addressee (if any), nature, custodian, and location of the writings referred to by the question, as well as the substance of the writing.
- G. Where a question asks that you "identify all oral communications," you should state, with respect to every oral communication, the description of which is required by the question, (I) the date and place thereof, (II) who initiated the communication, (III) whether the communication was in person or by telephone, or other form of transmission and specify which, (IV) the name, home address and telephone number, business address and telephone number, employer (present or last known), job title, occupation of each and every person who participated in or heard any part of the communication, and (v) the substance of what was said by each person who participated in the communication.
- H. Where a question asks that you "identify all persons," state the name and present or last known business and residence address and telephone numbers, occupation and title, if any, of persons whose identify is sought by the question.

I. For the purposes of these questions, "Person" shall include in this meaning a partnership, joint Venture, corporation, association, trust or any other kind of entity, as well as a natural person.

J. If any document to be produced in response to these questions contains information which must be treated as confidential in nature, identify that document and state the reason for the confidentiality in sufficient detail to allow for a determination on the issue of confidentiality. The Town of West New York and the attorneys for the Town of West New York hereby warrant to the Claimant that the confidentiality of any document so identified will be respected, guarded and maintained until such time as a court having jurisdiction over the issue may rule on any disputed issue of confidentiality.

K. These questions request documents which are relevant to the subject matter of the claims and allegations of the Claimant. To the extent that any document does not relate, in its entirety, to the subject matter of the Claimant's claims or allegations, the document may be withheld. All other documents which deal directly with the subject matter of the Claimant's claims or allegations must be produced in response to these requests.

L. All responses to questions or objections thereto shall be prefaced by the particular question or subsection thereof.

M. An attempt has been made to provide adequate space for answers. If you need more space to provide a fully responsive answer, attach supplementary pages, identifying the continuation of the answer with the number of the applicable question.

N. All documents produced shall be labeled and referenced to a particular document request or question. If the documents are produced in response to more than one question, this fact should be noted as well.

O. The questions and document requests shall be deemed continuing, so as to require supplemental answers from time to time up to the date of a trial, in the event that the claim results in litigation.
